

PELICAN POST – SPRING 2012

LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

It's official, summer isn't far away now. Before you know it, school will be ending and we'll be enjoying another great season at Camp Pelican! We're planning lots of new special activities for this summer and can't wait to see you. Hang in there for a little longer and think SUMMER!

TIME IS RUNNING OUT !

Don't miss out on another great summer at Camp Pelican! This is your last chance to be a part of the 2012 season. Many age groups are filling fast and we want to see you all this season. It's shaping up to be a great summer, so join us now!

UPCOMING DATES TO REMEMBER !

As we get closer to the summer season, we want to remind you about a few important dates. Please make a note on your calendar for June 1st. That's the date when we will need firm dates and full payment of camp fees for this summer. We'll be sending a separate mailing regarding balances and dates, etc. Please remember that a medical form is required for each camper by June 15th. Medical forms can be printed out at www.pelicandaycamp.com. We would appreciate receiving your camper's medical form ASAP. Please remember that the health department will remove any camper without a valid medical form. FYI, our Orientation Day is scheduled for Saturday June 9th. Please make a note on your calendar and expect further details soon.

LUNCH NEWS

Don't forget to add lunch for your campers this season. Our menu is filled with all sorts of new ideas guaranteed to make you hungry just reading it! All of the information can also be found at the Forms & News section at www.pelicandaycamp.com. Sign up for the whole week or just the days you want! Chicken Nugget Mondays, Pizza Thursdays and our traditional Friday BBQ are all available. Check it out now for your camper this season and let's do lunch!
